

DOINGS OF THE WORLD BOILED DOWN

Hutchinson, Kan.—Abe Ostatter, pawnbroker, shot and dangerously wounded his wife and her father and killed her mother. Family quarrel.

Galesburg, Ill.—3 Mexicans employed by C., B. & Q. Railroad, badly burned from explosion in bunk car.

Keokuk, Ia.—J. A. Johnson and John Bentura, members of section crew of C., B. & Q. Railroad, injured when passenger train crashed into handcar.

Fairbanks, Alaska.—Celebration over pasage by lower house of Congress of bill for government construction of Alaskan railroad continued to-day.

Washington.—Immigration Commissioner Caminetti on behalf of Department of Labor asked Congress to confine any legislation now on Asiatic exclusion solely to Hindus.

New York.—Morire Gatorie and wife, found guilty of keeping chickens in basement in violation of sanitary law, sentenced to eat chickens by Saturday or go to jail.

Washington.—Rep. Monahan proposed that a House special committee investigate alleged gambling on the Chicago, Duluth and Minneapolis wheat markets and "their gigantic pinch on the world's bread."

Glendora, Cal.—3 men imperiled by sudden rush of water on ranch of Frank Chance, manager N. Y. American baseball club, saved by Chance.

Santa Barbara, Cal.—Mrs. Robert Louis Stevenson, widow of noted novelist, dead.

South Bend, Ind.—Six men believed to have been ringleaders in assault on St. Casimir Polish Roman Catholic Church Sunday arrested.

Minneapolis.—For first time in history Minnesota Swedish Lutheran Synod voted to allow women to vote on all church issues.

Kansas City, Mo.—Dr. J. S. Snider, ex-police surgeon of Kansas City, and Dr. W. W. Stevens killed in motor car accident.

Ferrys, Tex.—19 persons bitten by pup suffering with rabies.

Evansville, Ind.—Reports along Ohio river caused flood predictions yesterday.

Detroit, Mich.—Rev. J. A. Cottam, pastor of Methodist Church at Dearborn, arrested, charged with arson.

Portland, Ore.—Discovering he had been long-changed $20, a man who wouldn't give his name returned money to L. V. Dickson, druggist. 5-cent cigar his reward.

Los Angeles.—Ten guests at dinner for Thomas Loyhed compiled aggregate of 833 years. Youngest 81.

New York.—Herman Sallek, Brooklyn baker, and wife all stuck up. Striking bakers threw them in trough of dough when they refused to close down bakery.

Springfield, Ill.—Resolutions condemning government ownership but favoring government control of telephone and telegraph utilities adopted by Illinois Independent Telephone Ass'n.

San Francisco.—U. S. Att'y Preston says he will ask, Sec'y of State Bryan to recall Carlos Sanjines, Bolivian consul here, arrested on charge of molesting two girls, 13, in nickel-odeon.

Crawfordsville, Ind.—Walter Runyon, accused of killing Arlie Stull, acquitted.

New York.—Oscar Ray fell unconscious in court when Judge Appleton sentenced him to 10 days. Masher.

New York.—Alexander M. Slaughtor bequeathed $1 to his son, Harry, who was described as "shiftless and wayward and wanderer for 35 years."

New York.—On her charge that she was subjected to examination by the ship's doctor of the Campania, Catherine O'Rourke awarded $35,000 damages against Cunard Steamship Co.

Syracuse, N. Y.—Ghouls forcibly entered family tomb of Abel L. Smith,